

1

Carnival Cruises Elation

This Port Canaveral ship knows how to have a good time! Carnival Elation sports a 1970's style but has recent Fun Ship 2.0 upgrades to ensure you have a great time. This ship is perfect for a short trip for one person or the whole family as it has a line-up of activities and amenities to take advantage of while you sail.

6

Disney Cruises Dream

The Disney Dream is the perfect short cruise for the kid in all of us. Sailing from Port Canaveral, this cruise travels to the Bahamas and back, providing the Disney experience we have all come to know and love along the way. If you are looking to take your family on vacation, look no further than the Disney Cruise Line.

2

Carnival Cruises Splendor

While this ship hails from Sydney, Australia, it is not one to miss. Designed to have a certain air of luxury about it, the Carnival Splendor drips with style. From Sydney, it takes you on a sea-faring adventure through the waters of Australia, New Zealand, and the South Pacific as you take in the cool vibes of this ship.

7

Royal Caribbean Mariner of the Seas

Are you looking for four days of excitement and adventure all in one? Royal Caribbean's Mariner of the Seas sails out of Port Canaveral to the Eastern Caribbean with short trips for the perfect weekend getaway. This ship was recently updated and now is even more activity-packed than ever!

3

Carnival Cruises Sunshine

Hailing from the homeport of Charleston, SC, the Carnival Sunshine is a recently renovated ship that provides a four-day cruise to Princess Cays Resort in the Bahamas. This three thousand and two guest vessel offers you a quick escape to the sea to relax and refresh yourself. There are also plenty of fun activities and dining opportunities to explore.

8

Norwegian Sky

If you want to visit Cuba or the Bahamas, Norwegian Sky might just be the right ship for you. This ship was originally built in 1999 but recently underwent renovation and refurbishment. This means it has all new updated features and activities for you to explore on your four day trip to the islands!

4

Carnival Cruises Valor

The Carnival Valor calls two ports home: New Orleans, LA, and Barcelona, Spain. This smaller, two thousand nine hundred and eighty passenger vessel travels to the Caribbean and general transatlantic destinations and is known as easy going. The motto of the ship is, "No Shoes, No Shirt, No Problems."

9

Princess Cruises Royal Princess

Get ready to sail away like royalty on the Royal Princess. Sailing out of Los Angeles, this four-day cruise excursion takes you down along the Pacific coast with a phenomenal crew that only provides the best in hospitality. You can expect top-level accommodations and luxury activity and meal options during your trip.

5

Celebrity Cruises Infinity

Do you want a cruise that focuses on luxury and peace? The Celebrity Infinity offers short cruises that take you to the Bahamas and back with your comfort in mind. Their motto, according to Celebrity Cruises, is "We'll take care of every detail so you can enjoy your vacation." From starting your trip by booking, you can tell they mean it.

THESE 9 CRUISE 4 DAY ADVENTURES ARE A MUST

A short cruise may be just what the doctor ordered if you are looking to unwind and have some fun over a holiday weekend. These nine cruises offer a quick getaway from the daily grind and to adventure. Make some memories and set sail with these fantastic cruise lines.