

Cruise Ship Food Reviewed:

Which Cruise Line Is Best?

Below, we've vetted each cruise line's food based on many factors, including customer reviews. And as you know, customers usually don't hold back when reviewing a meal! This list should help you narrow down your options and choose the cruise with the best food for both your palate and budget.

Carnival Cruise Line

Carnival Cruise Line is one of the highest-ranked cruise lines overall, providing excellent customer service and giving passengers a ton of value for their money.

01

Celebrity Cruises

If you're looking to get away from the tacky decor of some cruise ships, then Celebrity Cruises are for you. Their ships are outfitted with a sleek, modern atmosphere that makes you feel like a thousand bucks when coupled with their outstanding service.

02

Crystal Cruises

Their outstanding service is matched only by their exquisite gourmet food, most of which is complimentary. Only two restaurants on Crystal's dining list incur additional fees, and even those offer each passenger one initial complimentary meal.

03

Disney Cruise Line

This family friendly cruise features outstanding cuisine served in restaurants ranging from classy, adults-only venues to restaurants that go all out to celebrate a Disney theme.

04

Holland America

Holland America caters to older adults who appreciate high-quality service and are willing to pay for it. As such, their dining options are exquisite and more refined than some of the cruises that primarily cater to families with children.

05

MSC Cruises

Known for providing an eclectic mix of entertainment aboard their ships, their dining experiences are equally diverse, offering options for every style and taste imaginable.

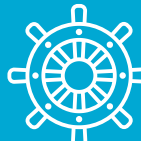

06

Norwegian Cruise Line

Provides amazing dining venues with finely crafted menus. Enjoy an elegant upscale meal or grab a casual bite at the buffet—Norwegian has something for everyone.

07

Oceania Cruises

Oceania Cruises are perfect for cruisers looking for an upscale yet relaxed country club vibe during their holiday. If you want a premium experience at less than premium prices, Oceania is the cruise line for you.

08

Princess Cruises

One of the largest cruise lines in the world, Princess Cruises offers traditional-style cruises. Casual elegance and a warm, welcoming atmosphere permeate Princess ships, and their dining experiences take center stage.

09

Royal Caribbean

Families, couples, and groups of friends will love the excellent dining options that range from casual to formal and everywhere in between.

10

Seabourn Cruise Line

Stop by the spa for a tension relieving massage, then head over to one of their phenomenal restaurants for a taste of cruising that would make even the most snobbish food critic green with envy.

11

Viking Cruises

Of course, one of the best ways to pass the time is by indulging in some fantastic cuisine, and fortunately, Viking Cruises has taken care of everything.

12

Windstar Cruises

The small ships don't offer nearly as many dining options as cruise lines with larger ships, but the quality is so impressive that you won't miss the variety one bit.
