

CRUISE GAY AND PROUD ON THESE LGBTQ FRIENDLY CRUISES

The ocean air and open seas are beckoning you. You're ready to book that magical cruise, and you're wondering which cruise lines are truly LGBTQ friendly.

01

Azamara: Voted the Best LGBTQ Small Ship Cruise

They began in 2007. Azamara's founding company is Royal Caribbean. Each Azamara ship has room for 690 guests, compare this to more than 3000 guests on larger cruise ships, and you can imagine what a personal and luxurious experience this cruise will be.

02

Set Sail on Celebrity Cruise Lines

Considered the best large ship cruise for LGBT. Celebrity was awarded "Best Onboard LGBTQ Gatherings" 2 years in a row. With a choice of 14 ships and 16 destinations, Celebrity has a lot to offer.

03

Aquafest Cruises for Gay and Lesbian Cruises

Aquafest offers cruises and vacations for the LGBTQ community. These cruises are booked on various cruise liners with mixed patrons. These organized small group cruises are capable of more destinations and less expensive than some all gay cruises.

04

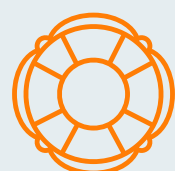

Vacaya When You Just Want to be with Like-minded People

Vacaya is made for the entire LGBTQ+ community. This is the only vacation company made for LGBTQ only vacations.

05

Atlantis for the All Gay Experience

Atlantis is the all gay cruise line that has hosted over 25,000 guests. Atlantis has been in business for 19 years. Their charters ships from top cruise lines. These are large cruise ships, depending on the ship's size, there will be 1,000 to 5,000 guests on a voyage.

06

Olivia Leads for Lesbian Cruises

Olivia offered its first lesbian cruise in 1990. Before this, they were in the music industry and have their record label. Olivia has been with us for nearly fifty years, supporting Lesbian and LGBTQ+ women, ensuring there are safe and celebratory places for all LGBTQ+ women.

